

Job Posting:

Position: Summer Drama Camp Counsellor

Deadline to Apply: May 15, 2025

Sleeping Giants Theatre is looking for a friendly, organized and self motivated team player to assist us with our growing organization this summer. The Summer Camp Counselors will work as a team to create exciting and educational days for all campers, as well as coordinating the presentation of a play for family and friends at the end of the camp. One of our camps this summer is a Musical Theatre Camp, so we are looking for instructors who are comfortable teaching regular drama camps, as well as musical theatre.

Qualifications and Experience:

- Post secondary education or equivalent experience in the theatre arts strongly preferred.
- Experience working with children, and teaching either drama, singing or dance.
- Experience with directing or choreographing for Musical Theatre is highly preferred.
- Prior summer camp counselor experience preferred.
- First Aid Training
- Vulnerable Sector Check

Skills and Competencies:

- Love of working with children & creating theatre.
- Ability to teach singing and choreography, and direct scenes
- Strong classroom management skills and LOTS of patience.
- Strong problem solving and quick thinking skills.
- Ability to multitask and keep eyes on all members of the group to ensure everyone's safety and wellbeing.
- Flexibility and willingness to pivot and change plans with little notice (for example, with weather changes, group dynamics, etc.)
- Empathy and awareness of others' emotions is an asset. Drama camp can be a very vulnerable place for lots of kiddos, and we are committed to helping them feel seen and safe.
- Ability to work both individually and as a team.

- Strong communication skills, and ability to speak confidently in front of large groups of people.

Duties may include:

- Crafting lesson plans prior to each day of camp according to the Sleeping Giants Summer Camp Curriculum.
- Teaching children acting, movement and voice techniques in a fun, engaging, and accessible manner.
- Being attuned to each student's needs and abilities, and ensuring that every camper has an enriching and positive experience.
- Assisting the campers in creating plays and characters, including leading creative writing exercises, imagination exercises, and teaching about story structure.
- Creating sound cues to enhance the final performance.
- Maintaining a safe environment, both physically and mentally, for learning and creativity.
- Working with the Summer Camp Supervisor to ensure all necessary supplies are acquired before they are needed.
- Managing first aid situations, and filing incident reports when necessary.
- Assisting with all elements of the final performance at the end of camp, including directing the show, helping to write the script, create and run the sound cues, and perform in the show if necessary.
- Assisting with all elements of production for the Musical Theatre Camp, including directing the show, teaching music and choreography, and creating a production schedule to ensure the full show can be rehearsed and performed in the 2 weeks.
- Reporting to the Managing Director on the successes and challenges of the camps, and assisting with future planning.
- Assisting with social media and marketing efforts by participating in videos and pictures, and posting fun updates on socials.

Schedule and Availability:

- This is a full time position at 35 hours/week for 7 weeks, from July 2 - August 19.
- Hours will be Monday - Friday from 8:30am - 4:30pm with an hour lunch break

Compensation:

- $25/hour

About Us:

Sleeping Giants Theatre is a new theatre school in Cochrane for kids and adults, providing quality acting and musical theatre training to our community. We run approximately 10 classes a semester for ages 5 and up, including a couple of adult classes. We also collaborate with local businesses to bring unique theatrical experiences to the town of Cochrane, such as dinner theatre, cabarets, and improv shows. Our mission is to bring quality theatre experiences and education to our community in order to inspire a love and appreciation for the theatre arts, and help kids on their journey to becoming confident, creative, and wonderful human beings.

This summer, we are running a number of exciting drama and musical theatre camps for kids. We are also preparing for a big fall season full of new drama classes and productions. We are looking for a team of theatre arts enthusiasts to help us connect to our community, bring in more students, and ensure that everyone has an incredible experience when they interact with our organization.

We believe in fostering an environment rooted in the following core values:

Student Growth: We are dedicated to the growth and development of our students, both as artists and individuals.

Collaboration: We value teamwork, open communication, and collaborative problem-solving to create a supportive environment for all staff, students and parents.

Excellence: We strive for excellence in all aspects of our organization, from teaching and performances to customer service and operations.

Lifelong Learning: We embrace a culture of continuous learning and personal growth for ourselves and our students.

Application Instructions:

To apply, please submit a cover letter, resume, and 2 references to jenny@sleepinggiantstheatre.com by May 15th.

Interviews will be taking place ongoing, if selected. Please indicate your general availability for an interview in your application (Zoom meetings can be arranged if needed). There may also be a skills assessment or demonstration required, to be completed after the interview.

We will strive to send out a job offer to the successful candidate on or before May 25th, with a start date of July 2nd.

We value every applicant's time and commitment throughout the hiring process. Regardless of the outcome, we strive to provide timely communication to all applicants.

At Sleeping Giants Theatre, we believe strongly in accessibility and are committed to providing support and accommodations for the diverse needs of our employees and teachers. We seek to create a team that is representative of our diverse community and are committed to taking steps to combat systemic marginalization and lack of opportunities for many members of our community. We strongly encourage anyone to apply for our positions regardless of their level of education or experience as we are committed to providing equal opportunity and training to everyone who is interested in being a part of our team and helping us on our mission to bring more quality theatre education and experiences to our town.

This position is made possible thanks to the generous contribution of the Government of Canada through the Canada Summer Jobs Program. For this reason, please ensure you meet the following requirements before submitting your application:

- (a) you are between 15 and 30 years of age (inclusive) at the start of employment;
- (b) you are a Canadian Citizen, permanent resident, or person on whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act [S.C. 2001, c. 27]*; and
- (c) you are legally entitled to work according to the relevant provincial / territorial legislation and regulations.

Thank you for considering joining the Sleeping Giants team. We look forward to reviewing your application and exploring the potential of having you contribute to our organization's success!
